Alma Mater

Hampton High, to thee we raise

Songs of joyous praise.

Glory, love, and honor

We sing to thee always.

Red and White thy colors be,

For faith and loyalty.

Thy fame be ever shining

As far as eyes may see.

Through thy doors we enter

In search of truth, the Key.

To the skies thy praises soar,

Hampton, evermore.

Our Year Unfolds . . .

The veteran class enters school on September 7th.

On September 6, 1960, many new faces entered our Alma Mater. Eight hundred sophomores walked bewilderedly down the long halls, armed with maps and a new schedule of classes. The teachers, having worked several days already, were eager to meet their new students. The following day the "veteran" classes, the new juniors and the seniors, returned for another year of hard work, study, and fun. For some this year would be the last; for others it was just the beginning. Many sentiments are felt as our year unfolds.

Mr. Taylor back at the old grind of teaching World History.

Perplexed Sophomores try to find their way around H.H.S.

Patsy Canady and Penny Burch buy Activity stamps from Mrs. Thorpe in the Book Store on the installment plan.

Red and White Day winners were: Sophomore: William Eyre and Pat Conroy, Junior: Edwardene Billecki and Frank Woolridge, Senior: Sharon Seifried and Kenneth Stockman.

School spirit has been promoted this year by having more pep rallies, a very successful Red and White Day, and signs in the halls spurring the team to victory.

Kathleen Mayes, HHS's representative in the "I Speak For Democracy" Contest.

Last summer, eighteen juniors represented Hampton High School at the Virginia American Legion Boys' and Girls' State held at Virginia Polytechnic Institute. In the course of a week, these seven girls and eleven boys learned the fundamentals of State and city government. They adopted charters in their cities, and ran the city under the leadership of their mayor.

Later in the week the two political parties, the Nationalists and the Federalists, nominated candidates in the State conventions to run for State offices. After many political rallies and the election, the new Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Attorney General were inaugurated with appropriate ceremonies. An Inaugural Ball at Radford College climaxed the week's activities.

WRNL Scholarship semi-finalists:
Dave Lawson, Carol Hastings, Linda
Lane, Lawrence Herron.

Merit Scholarship semi-finalists: Lawrence Herron, Linda Bloxom, Carol Hastings, and Gerard Steiner.

Football Homecoming Queen, Anda Ransone, escorted by William Robertson, is presented a silver bowl by Mr. Lively.

Senior Attendant: Sherry Holeik escorted by Fred Bowen.

Football Homecoming

Anda Ransone, a senior, was crowned Homecoming Queen during the half-time ceremonies of the Hampton-

Wilson football game. Miss Ransone and her attendants were chosen by the student body in the previous week.

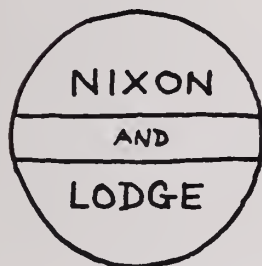

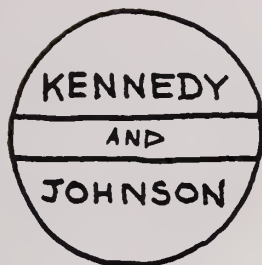

Junior Attendant: Jane Boyd escorted by Micheal Cole.

November Brings Election Day

Gerald Steiner distributes political information to Diane Hancock and Diane Geer.

A mock election among the student body was held at the time of the national presidential election to determine who Hampton High School thought would make the better President of the United States. Led by William Atwell and Gerry Steiner, the students entered into a week of active campaigning, climaxed by an assembly in which Senator Victor P. Wilson and Mr. Lester Parsons, a Norfolk attorney, spoke on the campaign platforms of the Democratic and Republican parties, respectively. Sixty-six per cent of the school voted, giving Mr. Nixon the edge over Mr. Kennedy by two votes, 710-708.

Registering to vote is a "must" in all elections.

Students cast their ballots for presidential nominees.

Ned Farster explains to Sandra Weaver, Lee Ann Dietrich, Chris Roberts, James Eyre, and Diana Beaver how he feels this scene should be enacted.

and We Present . . .

The Garrick Dramatic Club presented "Magnificent Obsession" on November 9 and 10 as its annual Fall Play. Under the leadership of Miss Faye Evans and student director Kay Jernigan the story of young Dr. Merrick and Mrs. Helen Hudson, wife of the brilliant brain surgeon who had drowned because of negligence on the part of Merrick, was enacted. The lead parts were portrayed by Ned Farster and Lee Ann Dietrich. The play was a success due to the efforts of the actors, work of the people on the various committees, and interest of the student body.

Douglas Mistler helps with the sets.

Dr. Merrick tries to show Mrs. Hudson that he wants to help, not hurt her.

"Historical" scenes was the theme of the Norview pep rally. Carol Alexander, Mary Ellin Draley, and Louie Lerner show that the cave man had school spirit, too!

In 44 B.C. Doug "Ceasar" Rosen lay on his deathbed carried by David Walton and Benny Gardner, while Sammy Williams, Mike Cole, and Gretchen VanderBoegh inform him that Hampton will win over Norview.

The traditional Newport News mascot, a pig, was captured Wednesday night by some Crabber fans and was in the possession of football manager Sammy Williams throughout the game.

Over 1500 students attended the game Thursday afternoon to support their team.

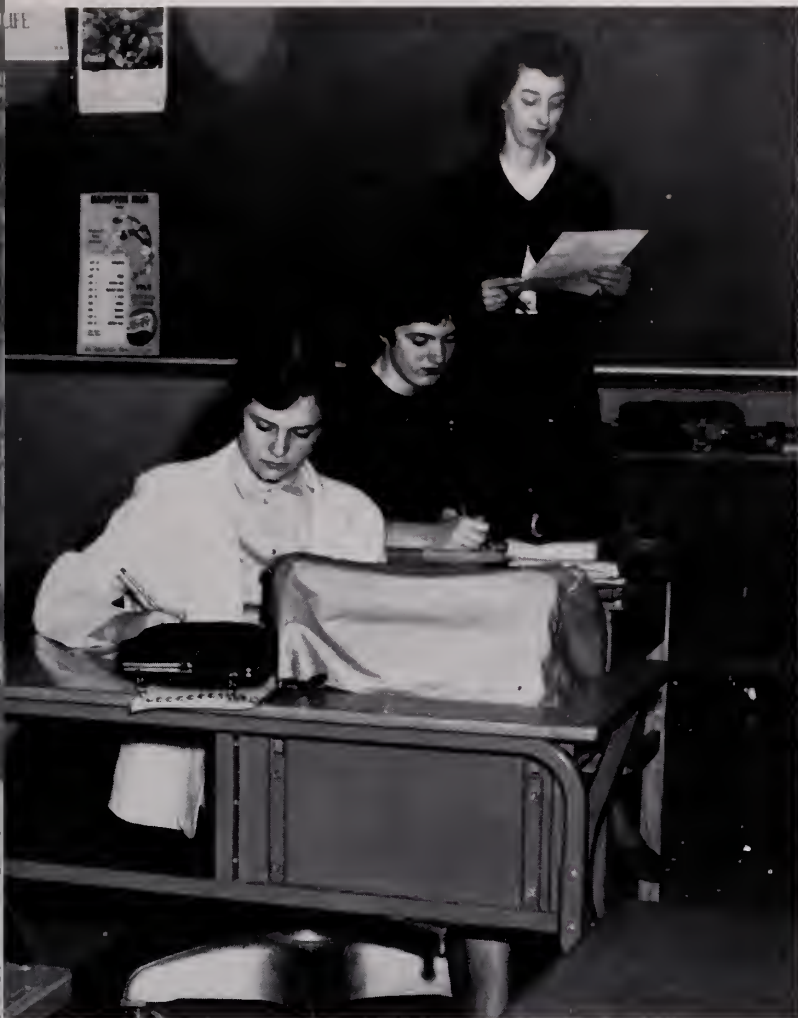

The majorettes led the parade through downtown Hampton Wednesday night in a slight drizzle.

The Wednesday night pep rally and Thursday "Turkey Day" game with rival Newport News are the highlights of the football season. Although we lost the game 19-14, the student body was behind the team all the way.

During the parade the band and Booster Club led the cheers and fight songs.

Miss Prevette dictates shorthand to VOT students, Linda Hundley and Patricia Smith.

Biology students, Allen Fuller and Frances Freeman, work on a puzzling project.

Students in plane geometry class, Vickie Beyer, Jean Clodfelter, and Donald Margeson, tangle with some difficult problems.

Mrs. Wilson discusses various colleges with David Forest, Carol Turnbull, and Carl Carlburg.

Christmas Holidays

Patsy Teagle eyes DE showcase; Tommy Gardner eyes Patsy.

We're doing our Christmas shopping at Hampton High this year.

Okay! Who made off with the ornaments?

at Last . . .

"I'm sorry Mrs. Shaffer, but it's only second place," says SCA President Jerry Nichols.

Miss Thomas informs Mrs. Edwards that there's no cash award for first place.

The A Cappella Choir sings Christmas Carols in the halls—a tradition at HHS.

A New Semester Begins

Mr. Hough and Miss Rowe see to it that students are enrolled in the class of their choice at the beginning of second semester.

Our favorite cheerleader—Jimmy Sadler!

The Senior Class play, "What's Wrong With The Girls?" stars Mike Peterson, Meredith Sembler, and James Eyre.

In Memoriam

Beverly Ann Prillaman

January 28, 1943

February 17, 1961

M

Each person, in his span of life, cultivates a garden of flowers and this garden represents the good and the kind that comes from them. Some people leave no garden or one so small it goes unnoticed; and others—gardens which are so lovely that the beauty and the fragrance reaches far and wide. Regardless of your incurable sickness, yours was such a garden.

With your departure some cried because they knew they were going to miss you, others cried because they knew you would be happier, and still others because they were sorry they had not spent more of their time with you. I know what you're thinking right now. You're thinking how much you loved each and every one of them. That's just how you've always been, Beverly. You went from day to day hoping your friends would either drop in or send a card and usually they managed to do one or the other. Oh! how you loved them.

Everything they ever did for you was just right. You would always say they didn't have to do that and they would tell you how they wanted to do things to help you. You would smile showing more love than any one person I have ever known.

If there's just one thing we'll always remember about you, Beverly, it's the great and inspiring faith you possessed. Where others would have fallen short, you kept your head held high. You always said God planned your life that way and you had no desire to change it. Through trials and tribulations—you never failed. Just think what a fine world this would be if everyone felt as you did.

As someone recently phrased it, you had "poise, grace and Christian charm." We won't forget Beverly, we'll never forget . . .

PATRICIA ANNE BOONE

Junior Class Officers

Elected to lead throughout the year were Jane Boyd, vice president; Jay Donlan, president; Sally Mac Smith, secretary; and Linda Carmines, treasurer.

By their choice of officers, the Junior Class of 1961, promises to be an enthusiastic future Senior Class with much school spirit.

Under the capable leadership of President Jay Donlan, they sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom, and presented their class play. The Junior Class was well represented in the various school activities as they produced many noted athletes and leading ladies.

The sponsors, Misses Kathryn Layne and Joan Lee Thomas, helped to make this year a memorable one. The starry-eyed hopefuls of the Junior Class, with their newly acquired high school rings, are looking forward to a new and thrilling year as the Class of 1962.

Administration

Mr. C. Alton Lindsay, our Superintendent of Schools, is a "man with a million responsibilities." His greatest responsibility is to us, the students, as he is the Chief Executive in charge of all school administration. His duties are so many and varied that he has several capable people who assist him in the fields of personnel, curriculum, budget, and employment.

We truly appreciate Mr. Lindsay and the School Board's efficient handling of all the executive and administrative problems which concern us and the needs of our school.

C. ALTON LINDSAY

SCHOOL BOARD: Seated: D. Fred Talbott, Mrs. Walter P. Smith, Gordon B. Cutler. Standing: Hunter B. Andrews, Leslie M. Ware, Dr. Wade L. Traynham, George L. Lockwood.

GARLAND R. LIVELY
Principal
B.A., M.A., University of Virginia

Mr. Garland R. Lively, our principal, is a man who is respected and admired by both the faculty and student body of Hampton High School. All who hear his "lively" voice each morning over the public address system know immediately that he is not only an active advisor and counselor, but also our personal friend.

In his four years of impressive service, he has succeeded in establishing a high degree of discipline at HHS, and has gained the valued confidence and friendship of all the students.

Mr. Lively shows an intense interest in all of the various activities within our school, being principally concerned with our education, welfare, and happiness.

The Senior Class especially wishes to extend their "thank-you's" to a great man who has given his time and energy to guide and serve them faithfully through their cherished years at Hampton High School.

EDWARD R. SZETELA
Assistant Principal
B.S., University of Massachusetts;
M.A., Cornell University

The twinkle in the blue eyes of our assistant principal, Mr. Edward Szetela, belies the stern covering he efficiently uses in carrying out his many and varied duties.

Mr. Szetela serves the school in several capacities. He attends to the Crabbers' activity schedules and the finances involved, coaches cross country, teaches Russian, and acts as Dean of boys.

With his deft touch and thorough execution of a multitude of duties and a million responsibilities, Mr. Szetela is a man who is well-known, respected, and appreciated by everyone.

JOHN McMANUS HOUGH
Assistant Principal
B.A., Wake Forest College; M.Ed.,
University of North Carolina

"Whom do I see about—?" This question is asked on the average of one hundred times a day. And the one and only answer is—"Mr. Hough, first door to the right."

Mr. Hough, our new assistant principal, and only 25, came to us from North Carolina. He participates actively in many school functions as he sponsors the Chess Club, handles the finances of the publications, and teaches algebra.

We are very happy to welcome Mr. Hough to HHS, because with his congenial personality and winning ways he is a valuable asset to our school.

"Well, he was here a minute ago!" cries Mrs. Cook.

Administration

As the hub is to the wheel, so our school administration is to Hampton High School. Irreplaceable, it is appreciated by both the faculty and the student body. It is a source of help to Mr. Lively, an aid to the teachers, a counselor to the students, and a friend to all. To these individuals goes our debt of gratitude for a never-ending job well done.

Business

Students who enroll in the business department at Hampton High School are given training on the vocational standard and are offered general education in the use of business services.

The business department, headed by Miss Ethlyn West, offers the following courses: one year of general business, two years of typewriting, two years of shorthand, one year of bookkeeping, one year of office practice, or one year of vocational office training. These courses are designed to prepare students for office jobs immediately after high school graduation or to enable them to continue their business training in college.

Arts

Cultural arts, music and art, and practical arts, home economics, compose the Arts department. The vocal classes, under the leadership of Mr. Sidney Swiggett, study the correct methods of singing and music appreciation. Superior concerts and popular acclaim are the results of study, practice, and performance of the band, led by Mr. Tommy T. Lawrence. Miss Mary Clynes, the art teacher, instructs her students in the techniques and appreciation of art. The home economics classes, taught by Mrs. Elizabeth Haywood and Miss Maria Bowen, emphasize the arts of sewing, cooking, and other essentials of good homemaking.

Industrial Education

Headed by Mr. Gibson, the industrial education department includes courses in metal work, wood work, drafting, and vocational industrial electricity.

Drafting, like most other courses at Hampton High School, is a single period course, while two periods are occupied by metal and wood shops. Vocational industrial electricity, which prepares boys for jobs with the power company or any other electrical contractor, is a two year terminal course which requires three periods a day.

Custodial Staff

"I'm just a general-all-around-fix-it-man," says Mr. Lewis Glasco, head custodian of Hampton High School. His primary concern is the maintenance of the building. He also oversees the janitorial staff of eight regular employees.

These hard workers are assigned specific areas, such as the gymnasium, for which they are responsible; but they can usually be found helping out wherever they are needed.

Each student at Hampton High owes a debt of gratitude to these people for the never-ending work which they do.

Cafeteria Staff

Twenty-three workers under the watchful eyes of Mrs. Ruth Holloman prepare the food each day for 1,700 people.

They start by serving a breakfast of orange juice and sweet rolls. For lunch they provide a hot plate with a choice of salads and desserts. Or, if you prefer, there are hamburgers, hot dogs, sandwiches, ice cream, and cookies.

To each member of the Cafeteria Staff goes a hearty word of thanks and appreciation for the many nourishing, attractive, and economical meals served during the year to us—the hungry Crabbers!

Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Andrews prepare lunch for the students.

OFFICERS: Mrs. George J. Soter, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Carl Rosen, Treasurer; Mrs. G. William Dunton, President; Mrs. John B. Lane, Historian; Mrs. W. J. B. Livingston, Corresponding Secretary.

Parent-Teacher Association

We, the students of Hampton High School, want to extend to you of the Parent-Teacher Association our sincere appreciation for the time and effort which you have given so freely to us. With your tireless support and interest, you have helped to make our school year a memorable one, and as future parents and teachers, we will remember the good work you did for our school and community.

PTA BOARD: Seated: Mrs. C. L. Clodfelter, Mrs. Isham Hardy, Mrs. Eugene Chappell, Mrs. E. C. Draley, Mrs. Albert Hutton. Standing: Mrs. K. S. Bates, Mrs. R. W. Watson, Mrs. Shirley Dickinson, Mrs. Elmer Wolff, Mrs. H. L. Copeland.

OFFICERS: Michael Todd, Treasurer, George League, President, Miss Katherine Bully, Sponsor, Annette Wade, Secretary, Thomas Joyner, Vice President.

Sophomore Class

The Class of 1963 is the largest to enter Hampton High School. Numbering 800 they occupy twenty-five homerooms, over a third of the student body. As the sophomores view the varied aspects of school life, they will not forget the year when they entered the school picture, a year of hard work and fulfillment leading toward success as juniors.

Golf

FIRST IN THE DISTRICT,
FOURTH IN THE STATE

These statistics tell of the outstanding efforts of Hampton High's golf team of 1960. Coached by Mr. J. M. Eason, the team of four players was selected after a rigorous elimination match. Gwynn Vaughn, Bishop Reed, James Eason, and Lee Wood were the match players for 1960.

These boys, while shooting on the average in the low 80's, won seven conference games and lost only one. This was a truly remarkable record and a credit to Hampton High School.

Wade Traynham shows the use of a driver.

"This is the correct stance," says Lee Wood.

Indoor Track

DISTANCE: Lowell Schuknecht, Robbie Robertson, and Billy Beach.

At the State Indoor Track Meet in Lexington, Virginia, the Hampton High team tied for eleventh place. Coached by Mr. Art Letoha, the team placed three men: Tommy Gardner, fourth in the quarter mile run; Robbie Robertson, fourth in the mile run; and Johnny Crigger, third in the sixty yard dash. As this was the only meet in which the team participated, they should be praised for the fine results.

RELAY: Karl Sorenson, Jerry Bocrie, Lowell Schuknecht, and Johnny Rogers.

SPRINTERS: Tommy Gardner, Gene Tattini, Johnny Crigger, Dennis Dickenson, and Wayne Todd.

Baseball

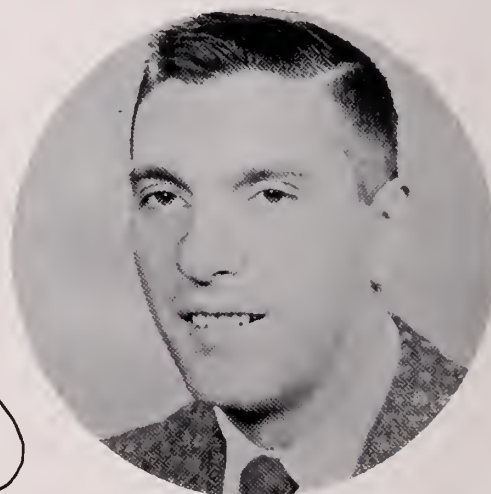

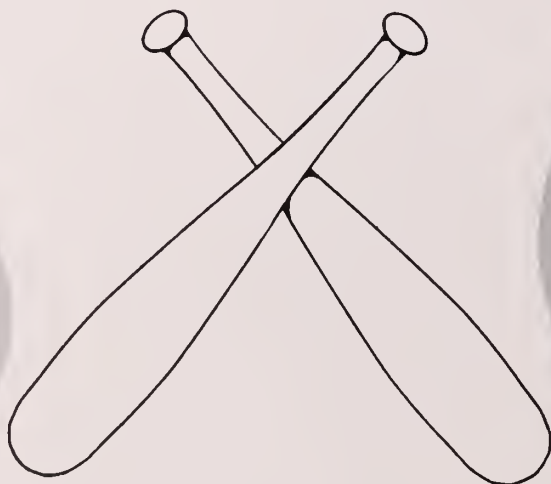

Hampton High's Eastern District Baseball team of 1960 broke all records by establishing a new win (20) for Group 1 in Virginia. Five players made the All Peninsula Team: catcher, Hartwell Routten, for the third consecutive year; George Jones, pitcher, who had an outstanding record of 6-0, and was accredited with the most strikeouts (83); Bobby Ball, infielder, who also had a record of 6-0 as relief pitcher; Eddie "Dynamite" Haden, second baseman, who led the Eastern District in batting (.397) and held the record for most hits and runs (25); and outfielder Hugh Boyd, who set the record for stolen bases (20).

Bob Hundley was named the best defensive first baseman in the District and had the distinguished record* of only two errors in two years of Varsity ball. Coached by Mike Anastasio, the team ended their very successful year with a 17-0-1 record.

The newly-formed Junior Varsity Baseball Team of Hampton High had a 6-2 record for its first year of play with losses to Wythe and Wilson. Coached by Robert Brown the team played on its own diamond behind the school. Fred Balmer was credited with the most home runs, and Jay Donlan with the highest batting average.

Track

Hampton High's 1960 track team was one of the finest produced by the school in many years. The Crabbers' dual meet record was 4-2, with losses only to arch-rivals Newport News, and Warwick. In the larger meets, Hampton placed fourth in the Tidewater and District competitions and captured sixth place in the State meet, the final event of the year.

Six records were established during the year: Mike Cole, a junior, outstanding in the broad jump, the 100 yard dash, and the 220 yard dash; Senior Robert Vermillion in the high and low hurdles; and Ronald Hamilton, captain of the team, in the 880 yard dash.

Seitz edges Robertson in the mile.

Vermillion gains in hurdles.

Coach Letoha gives John Crigger, Thomas Gardner, Robert Vermillion, Ronald Hamilton, and Micheal Cole last minute instructions.

Cole strives for 21 feet in the broad jump.

Mike Cole and Robert Vermillion were the high scorers, with 94 and 81, respectively. The team voted Cole Most Valuable man and best in the field events, Thomas Ruth Most Deserving, and Ronald Hamilton Best Runner.

Cross Country

Hampton High's Cross Country team, coached by Assistant Principal Edward Szetela, swept to another successful season in 1960, winning five meets, losing two, and placing fourth in the Eastern District meet. The Crabbers' only losses were to Newport News, and Princess Anne.

Nine or ten boys have been instrumental in this year's fine team. Members of the starting team were picked on the basis of best running time in the time trials. Charles Seitz and William Robertson turned in the fastest times in the meets. In the Eastern District meet where over 100 boys competed, Seitz placed seventh, the only boy from Hampton to place in the top ten runners.

Football

With a record of three wins, five losses, and one tie, the Crabbers experienced a rather disappointing season from a victory standpoint. However, the football team provided plenty of action and excitement whenever it played. "Lady Luck" was sometimes on our side, but more frequently against us, so that you often heard, "Oh, if we had only . . ."

The Crabbers won their opening game against Benedictine, 13 to 6; and were defeated by Wilson, 7 to 13; Maury, 19 to 26; and Princess Anne, 7 to 13. At the half-way mark in the season, Hampton rallied and went on to defeat E. C. Glass, 7 to 0; and Granby, 7 to 0. The Warwick game ended in a tie, 13 to 13; and the Crabbers had to bow to Norview, 21 to 0; and to their arch-rivals, Newport News, 13 to 19.

Coach J. M. Eason was understandably downcast by the rather poor seasonal record. He praised the team for its sportsmanship and its mid-season comeback. And ever the optimist, Coach Eason predicts great things for the team next year.

Varsity Basketball

Co-captains: Dickie Calfee and Jerry Nichols.

"You can't crush a Crab!" Cheered on by the enthusiastic student body, Hampton's Varsity Basketball Team ended the 1960-61 season with a 6-5 conference record and an overall total of 10 wins and 10 losses.

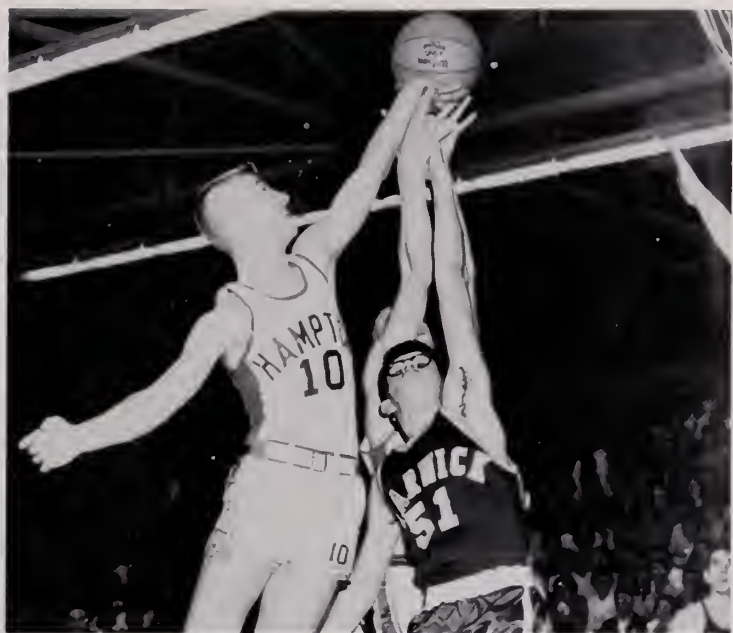

Off to a "win-one, lose-one" start, the "Big Red" went on to an impressive five game winning streak. Co-captained by Nichols and Calfee, the team was credited with a fourth place for their fine defensive play with Cole, Rew, and Nichols doing spirited work under the baskets. Jerry Nichols took first place in the Peninsula offensive standings with a game average of 14.0 points.

Fans will remember the exciting overtime game with arch-rival Newport News and the heartbreaking 29-30 score. But you can't crush a crab, and our "Mighty Crabbers" finished the season in fifth place after tying Warwick. This paved Hampton's way to the Eastern District Tournament where they lost to Princess Anne in the final breathless minutes by a score of 50-57.

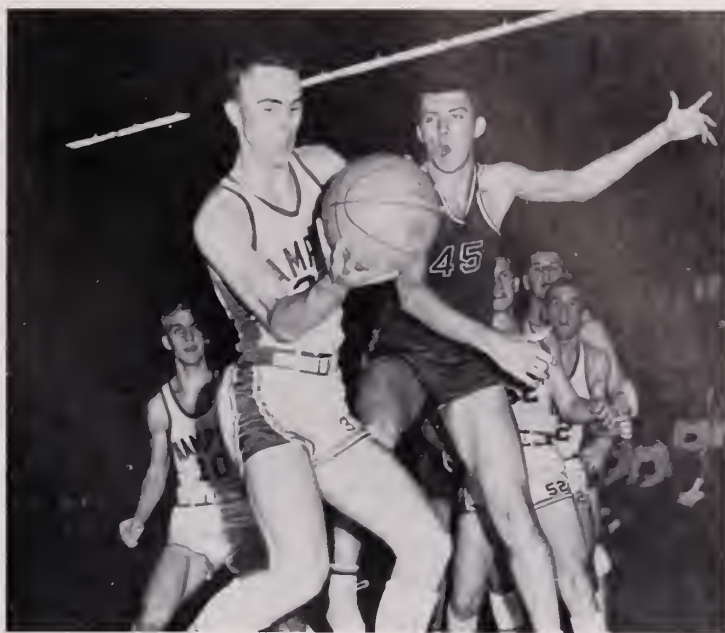

Coach Mike Anastasio credits this successful Crabber season to a team who possessed a great deal of desire and who worked hard to make a good team.

Calfee goes up for a lay-up.

Nichols recovers for Hampton.

Donlan scores against the Typhoons.

Cole gets the rebound.

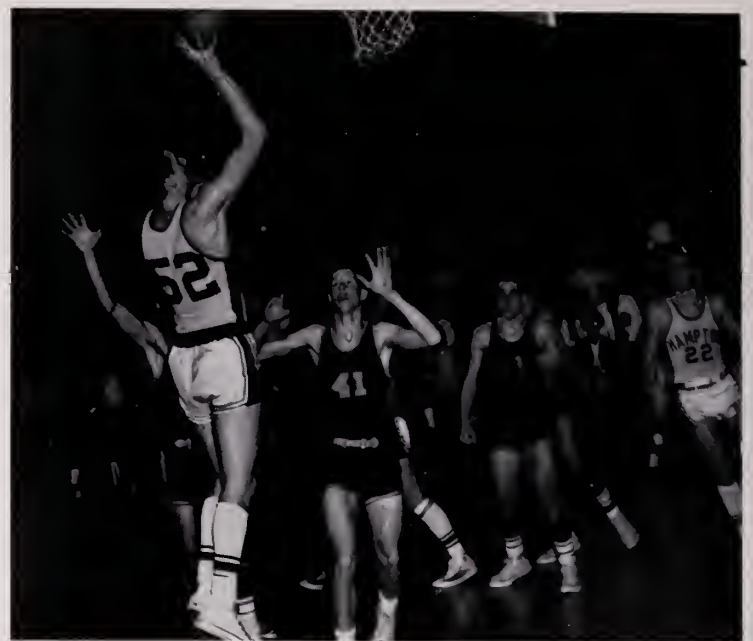

Put the "freeze" on the ball!

Two points for Rew?

Cole steals the ball from Warwick.

Rew sinks in another two points!

Cole scores amidst the enemy!

The score is tied in the Wilson game.

"There's nothing to it!" cries Jerry Nichols

Calfee comes down with the rebound.

Forrest makes a jump shot good for two points.

Cole tries to get into the key.

Trimble takes the ball down court.

Will Nichols make it?

CO-CAPTAINS: David O'Beirne and Johnny Saintsing.

Junior Varsity Basketball

The scoreboard shows the "Little Red" J. V. Basketball team with a record of 8 wins, and 10 losses for the 1960-61 season.

With the fine J. V. team efforts of Saintsing, O'Beirne, King, Bondurant, and Harris, much valuable experience was gained which we know will be put to "victorious" use next year.

O'Beirn' sinks in another one!

Can they stop that basket?

King intercepts a pass.

It's a toss-up! Will we get it?

Varsity Cheerleaders

Sports are an integral part of the activities of HHS students. From track to football, the athletic program at Hampton High offers a diversity of activities. For some it presents a constructive outlet for excess energy, while for others it provides an enjoyable pastime as a spectator.

In either capacity, participant or spectator, sportsmanship is most important. And the contributing factor to this display of school spirit and sportsmanship has been the encouraging efforts of our enthusiastic Varsity Cheerleaders, chosen by the student body at the spring tryouts.

Led by head cheerleader Linda Thompson, their spirit prevailed throughout the year, and with their hearty cheers of GO-FIGHT-WIN, they helped to spur the Mighty Crabbers on to victory.

"Crabbers, Crabbers, Crabbers!" can be heard on Tuesday evenings during football season and before the Varsity basketball games as the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders spur the JV teams on to victory with their proud cry.

Chosen in the previous spring by the faculty and student body, it is the job of these seven girls to promote school spirit at the Junior Varsity games. During the football season, they decorated the goal posts before the home games.

Doug Rosen and Louis Lerner lend a helping hand to Carol Hughes.

The JV's decorated the goal posts for every home football game.

Dedication

During your three years at Hampton High School your city and your beloved school have enjoyed singular honors. Hampton has celebrated her three hundred and fiftieth anniversary, an accomplishment impossible for any other English speaking settlement in the New World. Your city has been the only American city to realize continuous life after her founding in 1610.

You, the Seniors of 1961, also have a first achievement to remember. Your class members are the first students to have had the privilege of enjoying all three senior high school years in the spacious, attractive new Hampton High School building. You have been the class that has helped complete the transition between the former Hampton High School and the present school. You have had the rare opportunity of establishing student body life in your new school home, of continuing worthwhile traditions of Hampton High School, and of introducing additions in keeping with the challenges and necessities of your time. You of 1961 have had unusual privileges and responsibilities in holding the priceless heritage of Hampton High School, and simultaneously creating new plans for a Hampton High School that is aware of the present needs and is also cognizant of the demands and challenges of the years ahead.

Class of 1961

You have received honors and accepted your responsibilities in admirable ways. As graduating Seniors, you have a strong background on which to build your future lives. With courage, honor, wisdom, judgment, and above all, faith in God, meet your future problems and your joys as men and women of strength, as sons and daughters of two splendid contributors to your training, the City of Hampton, and your own Hampton High School.

With respect for your achievements, pride in your accomplishments, and sincere wishes for a successful future for each of you, the yearbook staff affectionately dedicates this edition of the Krabba to you, the Senior Class of 1961.

In 1955, with the organization of the Student Cooperative Association, the student body of Hampton High School acquired greater unity, more school spirit, and more student life. Membership in the SCA, as it is usually called, is a right of every student.

Student-school policies, projects, and activities are determined by the SCA Council, which is made up of elected representatives from each homeroom, each school-sponsored club or organization, and the SCA officers. School elections, dances, assemblies, and special events are among the responsibilities of the SCA Council.

HHS committee members Melissa Patrick, Carole Turnbull, Peggy Shaffer and chairman Carol Wootten put club notices on the bulletin board.

The Welfare committee, headed by Jane Stone, sends food to Patrick Henry Hospital at Thanksgiving.

President Jerry Nichols, with the cooperation of the other officers—Michael Cole, Anne Decker, Sue Parrish, and Hope Southall—led the student body to a successful year. Mr. Elbert Carr, the sponsor, contributed guidance and encouragement to the SCA and all its undertakings.

Hope Southall, chaplain, gives the devotions each morning over the loud speaker system.

At Foreign Student Day in Richmond, Philio Comiti, an American Field Service Exchange Student at Annandale High School, from Athens, Greece, explains the ways of her country.

Peninsula S C A Federation

Hampton, Newport News, and Warwick High Schools form the Peninsula Student Co-operative Association Federation. Through Exchange Days, several students from each school meet at the designated school for the purpose of promoting fellowship, co-operation, and understanding among the three student bodies.

Each school has equal representation on the Federation Council and the officers are rotated among the schools each year. Much notable work is accomplished by this Federation and its hard-working members.

Latin Club

Participating in the Turkey Day Parade, sponsoring the football Homecoming Dance, holding the traditional Roman banquet, and sending delegates to American Legion Boys' and Girls' State are among the various projects of the Hampton High School Latin Club.

The club designated a day as "Latin Day," thus emphasizing their main purpose: to promote an interest in the Classics. A member of the Virginia Classical Association, it hosts the annual Latin tournament held under the auspices of the Association, in which students from all four years of Latin in the Peninsula schools participate.

Jacob Moll shows the Latin 7 and 8 students the correct way to scan a line of Vergil.

If Confucius had been a chess player and if he were alive today, he would have found worthy opponents among the members of the Hampton High School Chess Club. Numerically the club was small, but these devotees of this ancient game made up for their lack of numbers by the enthusiasm, interest, and skill they displayed in their matches.

Every Thursday night, odd-sounding words such as "gambit," "Bishop," "Rook," "Pawn" and so on, broke the silence of the meeting place. Under the guidance and leadership of Mr. John Hough, sponsor, and Stephen Chase, president, the Chess Club had a successful year. They competed with teams from other Peninsula high schools, and engaged in matches with various military and adult groups.

Paul Webb, Barry Heath, Frank Deis, and Stephen Chase decide which move will win the tournament for Hampton High.

Left to Right: G. Fink, SCA Representative, K. Davidson, Photographer, P. Cannon, Reporter, H. Cooke, Chaplain, J. Johnson, President, B. Lundin, Vice President, B. Cooke, Treasurer, P. Sanders, Secretary.

"The purpose of the Distributive Education Club is to promote the advantages and opportunities afforded by choosing a career in retailing," says Mrs. Esther B. Lominack, sponsor. A person may join the club if he is sixteen years of age, a junior or senior, and is genuinely interested in retailing.

The D.E. students of Hampton High attended the fall District meeting and the annual State Distributive Education Convention in Richmond where they entered their displays in the state competition.

Factions Battle In Congo Capital

UN Shuts Down Radio As Blazing Feud Develops Between Leaders

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo—United Nations troops today moved to the capital to prevent a civil war between two rival factions of the Congolese army. The fighting broke out after the army's chief of staff, General Kasongo, was killed. The army is now divided into two main groups, one led by General Kasongo's son and the other by General Kasongo's brother. The fighting has been going on for several days, and the city is in a state of chaos. The United Nations has sent troops to the capital to maintain order and prevent a full-scale civil war.
